AHS and ASF sign cooperation agreement

ASF Airport Services Friedrichshafen GmbH, the largest local handling company for passenger services at Friedrichshafen Airport, is now a preferred partner of AHS Aviation Handling Services GmbH. Both companies terminated this commitment with the signing of an appropriate agreement on 22nd April 2016. The cooperation stipulates that ASF provides operational services within the AHS Groups' marketing network while AHS will promote them in the worldwide market.

Prof. Dr. Martin Roll, Chairman of AHS, rejoiced at the signing: „AHS and ASF are highly complementary. AHS offers 65 years of experience in the market to its new partner ASF and also increases its own sales network thanks to ASF.“ Manfred Rosenthal, CEO of ASF, added: „And also the location of Friedrichshafen will be strengthened overall.“ Together with its new partner ASF AHS provides comprehensive services for airlines in the German market. AHS Aviation Handling Services GmbH is the leading provider of airline handling services in Germany.
